

Real Steel Game One Year Anniversary

Huge Free Update and New Downloadable Content to be Released

In commemoration of the one year anniversary of the release of the digital downloadable Real Steel game, Yuke's Co., Ltd. (HQ: Osaka, Japan; President: Yukinori Taniguchi; hereafter, "Yuke's") will be releasing a major free update, along with new downloadable content divided over 8 new DLC packs, for the Xbox LIVE and PlayStation®Network versions of the game.

Overview of Update

- Revamped game systems for more exciting fights

Several updates, including a new game system and a revamping of the knock-down recovery system change the dynamics of the game, making fights more exciting than ever.

- Free new robot head parts

All players who download this free update will receive 3 powerful new head parts.

*Release of new content planned to begin on 10/31 for Xbox LIVE and 11/6 for PlayStation®Network.

- Region expansion

Real Steel is currently being enjoyed all over the world—and with this update, even more regions will be added. This will result in the game being playable around the world in 30 countries on the Xbox LIVE, and 44 countries on the PlayStation®Network.

*The update patch is planned to be released on 10/31. Because release time may differ between regions, for a brief interval, users may not be able to play against users in different regions.

Release of New Downloadable Content

- New downloadable content released over the course of 8 DLC packs

A total of 100 new downloadable items will be released over of 8 DLC packs.

In addition to this new content, downloadable content that was released exclusively on the Xbox LIVE version from February – May 2012 (a total of over 200 items) will gradually be released for the PlayStation®Network.

*Release of new content planned to begin on 10/31 for Xbox LIVE and 11/6 for PlayStation®Network.
